

JB Hi-Fi Limited – Securities Trading Policy

1. Introduction and scope of this Policy

Purpose and objectives

- 1.1 This document sets out the securities trading policy (Policy) of JB Hi-Fi Limited (JB Hi-Fi) on Dealing in Securities (and in particular, Dealing in JB Hi-Fi's Securities).
- 1.2 JB Hi-Fi seeks to promote security holder and general market confidence in JB Hi-Fi. The Directors and employees are therefore required to conduct their personal investment activity in a manner that is lawful and avoids conflicts of interest between the Director's or employee's personal interests and those of JB Hi-Fi.
- 1.3 The Policy is specifically designed to raise awareness, avoid any breach of the law and minimise the possibilities of any misunderstanding or suspicion arising from Directors or employees trading in JB Hi-Fi's Securities. The Policy also aims to assist JB Hi-Fi in its disclosure and reporting requirements.
- 1.4 This Policy is comprised of 4 sections:
 - (a) Section 1 – Introduction and scope of this Policy.
 - (b) Section 2 – The insider trading prohibition – compliance with the law.
 - (c) Section 3 – JB Hi-Fi's Securities Trading Policy (JB Hi-Fi's policy relating to a Key Person's ability to Deal in Securities).
 - (d) Section 4 – Glossary/key terms and definitions used in this Policy.

Application of the Policy – Who does the Policy apply to?

- 1.5 JB Hi-Fi has adopted this Policy which applies to all of its Key Persons and Employees. The Policy also applies to any contractor or consultant specified by the Company Secretary. By virtue of their role and position within JB Hi-Fi, Key Persons need to take particular care in relation to Dealings in JB Hi-Fi's Securities due to the potential for adverse public perceptions to be formed about those Dealings. Accordingly, specific responsibilities and obligations apply under this Policy to JB's Key Persons. In summary:
 - All Sections of this Policy apply to Key Persons.
 - Only Sections 1 and 2 of this Policy apply to all other Employees.
- 1.6 JB Hi-Fi's Key Persons include JB Hi-Fi's Directors (whether non-executive or executive), the Executive team, members of the JB Hi-Fi senior management team, members of the JB Hi-Fi management team, regional managers, Employees based at the JB Hi-Fi Support Office, store managers, store office administrators and any other Employee that the Company Secretary from time to time designates as a Key Person for the purposes of this Policy.
- 1.7 It is important for all Employees to remember that, although many of the responsibilities and obligations under this Policy only apply to Key Persons, the insider trading prohibitions set out in the Corporations Act and discussed in section 2, apply to all persons (including all Employees and family members of any Employees).

Consequences for breach of the law and Policy

- 1.8 Insider trading is a serious criminal offence. Breach of the insider trading laws by any Employee may subject that Employee to:
- (a) criminal liability – attracting potential fines and imprisonment; and
 - (b) civil liability – civil penalties and compensation orders may also be issued against persons who engage in insider trading.
- 1.9 In addition to the consequences applicable as a result of any breach of law, contravention by any Employee of any applicable part of this Policy will also be regarded by JB Hi-Fi as serious misconduct which may lead to JB Hi-Fi taking disciplinary action, including dismissal in serious cases.

Further advice

- 1.10 If you do not understand any aspect of this Policy including the summary of the law relating to insider trading, or if you are confused as to the application of the Policy or whether the law applies to you, please contact the Company Secretary for guidance. However, neither this Policy nor any guidance from the Company Secretary should be taken as legal advice. At all times you are ultimately responsible for ensuring that you comply with the law and you may therefore wish to seek your own professional legal advice before Dealing in securities and, in particular, JB Hi-Fi Securities. If you have any doubts about your compliance with this Policy we suggest that you do not Deal with the Securities in question until you have clarified your position.

Adoption of this Policy

- 1.11 This Policy has effect from 1 January 2011.

2. The insider trading prohibition

What is insider trading?

- 2.1 Consistent with the law, all Employees are prohibited in all circumstances from Dealing in Securities at any time if they are in possession of Inside Information (see paragraph 2.3 below) whether or not this Policy permits them to trade.
- 2.2 If you have Inside Information (as defined in paragraph 2.3 below) relating to JB Hi-Fi it is illegal for you to:
- (a) Deal in (that is, apply for, acquire or dispose of) JB Hi-Fi's Securities or enter into an agreement to do so; or
 - (b) procure or encourage another person to apply for, acquire or dispose of JB Hi-Fi's Securities or enter into an agreement to do so; or
 - (c) directly or indirectly communicate, or cause to be communicated, that information to any other person if you know, or ought reasonably to know, that the person would, or would be likely to, use the information to engage in the activities specified in paragraphs (a) or (b) above.

These prohibitions generally apply equally to the application for, grant, exercise or transfer of an option over JB Hi-Fi's Securities. However some exceptions exist in relation to JB Hi-Fi Option Plans as set out in sections 2.9 to 2.11 below.

It does not matter how or in what capacity you become aware of the Inside Information. It does not have to be obtained from JB Hi-Fi to constitute Inside Information.

You cannot avoid the insider trading prohibition by arranging for a member of your family or a friend to Deal in JB Hi-Fi's Securities nor may you give "tips" concerning Inside Information relating to JB Hi-Fi to others, including friends or customers. These actions would also breach the insider trading laws.

What is Inside Information?

- 2.3 Inside Information includes information relating to JB Hi-Fi which is not generally available and that, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of JB Hi-Fi's Securities (see Inside Information definition in Glossary). Information can include matters of speculation or supposition and matters relating to intentions or likely intentions of a person.

A reasonable person would expect information to have a material effect if it would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities or other traded financial products in deciding whether or not to deal in JB Hi-Fi's Securities.

Examples of Inside Information could be:

- (a) the financial performance of JB Hi-Fi against its budget;
- (b) changes in JB Hi-Fi's actual or anticipated financial condition or business performance;
- (c) an actual or proposed takeover or merger by, or of, JB Hi-Fi;

- (d) actual or proposed changes in the capital structure of JB Hi-Fi, including proposals to raise additional equity or borrowings;
- (e) proposed changes in the nature of the business of JB Hi-Fi;
- (f) changes to the Board of Directors or significant changes in senior management;
- (g) an undisclosed significant change in JB Hi-Fi's market share;
- (h) likely or actual entry into, or loss of, a material contract;
- (i) material acquisitions or sales of assets by JB Hi-Fi;
- (j) a proposed dividend or other distribution or a change in dividend policy; or
- (k) a material claim against JB Hi-Fi or other unexpected liability.

When is information generally available?

2.4 Information is generally available if:

- (a) it consists of readily observable matter or deductions;
- (b) it has been brought to the attention of investors through an announcement to the ASX or has been made known in a manner which would be likely to bring it to the attention of investors in securities, and a reasonable period has elapsed since it was announced or brought to investors' attention; or
- (c) it consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn from information referred to in paragraphs (a) or (b) above.

Examples of possible readily observable matters are:

- (d) a change in legislation which will affect JB Hi-Fi's ability to make certain types of investments or trading activities; or
- (e) a severe downturn in global securities markets.

The insider trading prohibition is not limited to JB Hi-Fi information

2.5 The insider trading laws in the Corporations Act also apply equally to any situation where Inside Information is obtained by an Employee in respect of Securities of another company, in the same way as it applies to Inside Information relating to Securities of JB Hi-Fi.

Extension of restrictions to family members and others

2.6 A number of the restrictions described in this Policy prohibit the communication of Inside Information to other people or arranging for, or encouraging, another person to trade in Securities.

2.7 Where a person related to or closely connected with an Employee undertakes trading in Securities which are restricted by this Policy, there is often a presumption that such person has been privy to information which is held by the Employee. If that presumption is correct, both the Employee and the other person may have engaged in insider trading. Even if that presumption is incorrect, such trading may create a perception of insider trading.

- 2.8 Accordingly, to the extent that it is within Employee's power to do so, Employees should ensure that any Securities trading which is prohibited by this Policy is not undertaken by:
- (a) their spouse, partner or child;
 - (b) relatives living in the Employee's home or to whom material support is contributed;
 - (c) a company or trust over which the Employee has influence or control (regardless of who is the beneficiary) including any self managed superannuation fund;
 - (d) a trust of which the Employee is a beneficiary (other than a trust over which the Employee exercises no control, i.e. a third person or entity exercises exclusive discretionary authority); and
 - (e) any other person over whom an Employee has investment control or influence.

Please note that an adverse perception can easily be formed by a third party even though the Employee did not intend to break, and has not actually broken, the law. For example, innocently or inadvertently mentioning something happening at work to a relation or friend who subsequently makes money from trading in JB Hi-Fi shares may result in a perception that you intended them to benefit financially from the information.

JB Hi-Fi's Option Plans

- 2.9 The insider trading laws do not prevent Employees who are in possession of Inside Information from being granted, applying for or exercising options under any JB Hi-Fi Option Plan.
- 2.10 Accordingly, the insider trading laws will not prevent an Employee from acquiring or exercising options to acquire or subscribe for shares under any JB Hi-Fi Option Plan.
- 2.11 However, the insider trading laws will prohibit any Employee from:
- (a) acquiring JB Hi-Fi Securities on-market;
 - (b) Dealing with JB Hi-Fi Securities which are the result of the exercise of any options acquired under a JB Hi-Fi Option Plan; or
 - (c) Dealing with the options acquired under a JB Hi-Fi Option Plan (other than acquiring and exercising them as set out in Paragraph 2.10 above). For the avoidance of doubt this prohibition includes selling any such options under any facility made available by the Company.

3. JB Hi-Fi's Securities Trading Policy

Dealings by Key Persons - What does this Policy apply to?

- 3.1 All Dealing in Securities by Key Persons must be in accordance with this Policy.
- 3.2 Unless expressly exempted by the law as described in sections 2.9 and 2.10, no Dealing in any Securities is permitted by a Key Person if that Key Person is in possession of Inside Information. The insider trading prohibitions are overriding obligations and apply at all times, despite all other terms of this Policy.

Short Term or Speculative Dealing

- 3.3 Key Persons are encouraged to be long-term holders of JB Hi-Fi Securities and may not therefore Deal in the same JB Hi-Fi Securities within any 6 month period. This is because speculation by Key Persons to take advantage of short-term fluctuations in JB Hi-Fi Securities could raise questions, or give rise to perceptions, about the integrity of JB Hi-Fi or its senior staff.
- 3.4 Exceptions to the 6 month restriction apply in limited circumstances in relation to JB Hi-Fi's Option Plans. The prohibition does not prevent the acquisition, vesting or exercising of options under such schemes or the subsequent sale of the resulting JB Hi-Fi Securities within a 6 month period.

Closed Periods and Trading Windows

- 3.5 Due to the risk of misunderstanding or suspicion arising in relation to Key Persons Dealing in JB Hi-Fi Securities while in possession of Insider Information, Key Persons are only permitted to Deal in JB Hi-Fi Securities during specific limited periods during the year (Trading Windows). All other periods are Closed Periods.
- 3.6 Except in certain limited circumstances set out below, no Dealing by any Key Person in JB Hi-Fi Securities is permitted at any time during a Closed Period, except with the prior written approval of the Company Secretary.
- 3.7 The Trading Windows and Closed Periods for JB Hi-Fi are as follows:

Period	Circumstance
Trading Window	In the period beginning upon the day following lodgement of JB Hi-Fi's half year profit announcements with the ASX and concluding 4 weeks after lodgement.
Trading Window	In the period beginning upon the day following lodgement of JB Hi-Fi's annual profit announcement with the ASX and concluding 4 weeks after lodgement.
Trading Window	In the period beginning on the day after JB Hi-Fi's annual general meeting and concluding 4 weeks after that meeting.
Closed Periods	All other times

- 3.8 During Trading Windows, Key Persons may Deal in JB Hi-Fi Securities provided that they do not possess any Inside Information in relation to those Securities. However:

- (a) the Directors (whether non-executive or executive);
- (b) members of the Executive team;
- (c) the Chief Financial Officer's direct reports; and
- (d) any other person designated by the Company Secretary, may only Deal in Securities during the Trading Windows having obtained the prior written approval of the Relevant Company Officer. Approval must be sought by sending an email to the Relevant Company Officer copied to the Company Secretary stating whether the Key Person intends to buy or sell Securities and the approximate date(s) of trading. Approval will be given or refused by return email from the Relevant Company Officer. Any approval given may be revoked in writing (including by email) by the Relevant Company Officer prior to Dealing taking place where the Relevant Company Officer believes that, between the date of approval and the date of Dealing, the relevant Key Person has become aware of Inside Information. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the other provisions of this Policy, other Key Persons do not require consent to Deal during the Trading Windows.

- 3.9 JB Hi-Fi may, from time to time, also restrict Dealing in JB Hi-Fi Securities (or other Securities) during any Trading Window by all or particular Key Persons or other Employees by notice to them where it believes that this is appropriate, for example, where such persons are aware of facts which might have a material effect on the share price if known to the market. Any part of a Trading Window where trading is prohibited by JB Hi-Fi is known as a Prohibited Period. Key Persons should, therefore, not take it for granted that they will be able to deal in JB Hi-Fi Securities at all times during Trading Windows. This may prevent, for example, Key Persons selling, and realising the value of, shares resulting from the exercise of options under a JB Hi-Fi Option Plan at a particular time, even though the Plan rules would otherwise allow this.

Types of Dealing by Key Persons excluded from operation of Policy

- 3.10 The Closed Periods, Prohibited Periods and requirements to obtain prior approval to Dealing do not apply to certain activities in relation to JB Hi-Fi's Option Plans as described in sections 2.9 and 2.10. Accordingly, options to acquire or subscribe for JB Hi-Fi Securities under any JB Hi-Fi Option plan may be acquired or exercised by any Key Person during a Closed Period or Prohibited Period without obtaining prior approval. However, any other Dealing with such options or Dealings with JB Hi-Fi Securities which are the result of any such exercise (including selling options under any facility made available by JB Hi-Fi), will be subject to the restrictions set out in this Policy, including the restrictions that apply during the Closed Periods and Prohibited Periods and the need to obtain prior approval to Dealing.
- 3.11 The restrictions in this Policy also do not apply where the proposed Dealing:
- involves subscribing for JB Hi-Fi Securities pursuant to a pro rata issue;
 - involves the application for JB Hi-Fi Securities under any JB Hi-Fi Option Plan or dividend reinvestment plan at any time whether or not within a Closed Period or Prohibited Period;
 - involves Dealing by a Key Person where the trading results in no change in beneficial interest in JB Hi-Fi Securities;

- occurs via investments in a scheme or other arrangement where the investment decisions are exercised by a third party, where the relevant Key Person has no control or influence with respect to trading decisions; or
- occurs under an offer to all or most of the security holders in JB Hi-Fi.

However, the disposal of Securities acquired under any JB Hi-Fi Option Plan will require approval.

Approval to Deal in Closed Periods and Prohibited Periods

- 3.12 If any Key Person wishes to Deal in JB Hi-Fi Securities within a Closed Period or Prohibited Period, the relevant Key Person must obtain the prior written approval of the Relevant Company Officer using the Approval Request Form (a copy of which is attached to this Policy as annexure A). The Approval Request Form should be submitted to the Company Secretary who will, where necessary, forward it to the Relevant Company Officer. Any approval given may be revoked in writing by the Relevant Company Officer prior to Dealing taking place where the Relevant Company Officer believes that, between the date of approval and the date of Dealing, the relevant Key Person has become aware of Inside Information. Details of all Dealings in a Closed Period or Prohibited Period must be advised in writing to the Company Secretary, making reference to the prior approval, as soon as they have taken place and, in any case, not more than 48 hours afterwards.
- 3.13 The Relevant Company Officer is only likely to approve dealing by a Key Person within a Closed Period or Prohibited Period in certain circumstances. These may include, without limitation, where:
- (a) the Key Person is in severe financial hardship or difficulty; or
 - (b) the proposed Dealing involves the transfer of JB Hi-Fi Securities to a connected person such as a spouse or partner, immediate family member, a company or family trust under the control or influence of the Key Person or any superannuation fund relating to the Key Person; or
 - (c) JB Hi-Fi believes all information relevant to the value of JB Hi-Fi Securities has recently been disclosed to the market, for example, if a prospectus has just been issued; or
 - (d) other exceptional circumstances exist such as where the Employee is required by law, court order, or court enforceable undertakings (e.g. family settlement) to sell the relevant JB Hi-Fi Securities; and
 - (e) the Key Person is not actually in possession of Inside Information in relation to JB Hi-Fi Securities; and
 - (f) the Key Person has sought and obtained prior written approval to dispose of the JB Hi-Fi Securities in accordance with this Policy.

Key Persons should note, however, that the decision is entirely at the discretion of the Relevant Company Officer. The Relevant Company Officer is likely to be particularly wary of granting approval at times when there is an increased a risk of misunderstanding or suspicion arising in relation to Key Persons Dealing in JB Hi-Fi Securities while in possession in Inside Information. This might be the case, for example, in the weeks between the end of a financial period and the release to the market of results for that period.

- 3.14 Any approval given by the Relevant Company Officer is intended as a compliance monitoring function only and must not be taken as an endorsement of the proposed dealing or legal advice that the dealing is in accordance with the law. Each Key Person remains individually responsible for his or her own investment decisions and compliance with the law (including the insider trading prohibitions) and this Policy. Key Persons should remember, in particular, that the insider trading prohibitions are overriding obligations and apply at all times, despite all other terms of this Policy.

Approval by Relevant Company Officer

- 3.15 In the case of any Director or Executive seeking to Deal in JB Hi-Fi Securities, the approval must be provided by the Chairman of JB Hi-Fi (or, in his absence, the Chairman's nominee).
- 3.16 In the case of the Chairman of JB Hi-Fi seeking to Deal in JB Hi-Fi Securities, the approval must be provided by the chairman of the Audit Committee (or, in his absence, his nominee).
- 3.17 In the case of any other Key Person who requires written approval to Deal the approval must be provided by the Company Secretary (or, in his absence, his nominee).

Confirmation of Dealings in JB Hi-Fi Securities by Directors and Executives

- 3.18 JB Hi-Fi is required by law and under the ASX Listing Rules to disclose Dealings in its Securities by Directors, within a prescribed period after the occurrence of that Dealing. In addition, the interests of JB Hi-Fi Executives will be disclosed in the company's Annual Report. Accordingly, each Director and Executive of JB Hi-Fi must notify the Company Secretary as soon as practicable after any Dealing in JB Hi-Fi Securities has occurred and, in any case, if a Director, not more than 24 hours afterwards in order to enable JB Hi-Fi to comply with its disclosure and reporting obligations.

Disclosure of margin lending arrangements

- 3.19 Any margin lending or similar funding arrangements entered into by any Directors or Executives in respect of JB Hi-Fi Securities have the potential to trigger disclosure and reporting obligations of JB Hi-Fi. Accordingly, any margin lending or similar funding arrangements entered into by any Director or Executive in relation to JB Hi-Fi Securities must be disclosed in writing to the Company Secretary as soon as practicable after entry into such an arrangement and, in any case, not more than 24 hours afterwards.
- 3.20 JB Hi-Fi may publicly disclose any margin loan or similar funding arrangements over JB Hi-Fi Securities taken out by any Key Person irrespective of whether such disclosure is required by law or the ASX Listing Rules.

Extension of trading policy

- 3.21 JB Hi-Fi may also from time to time extend this Policy by specifying that all or particular Key Persons are also restricted from Dealing in the Securities of other specified companies with which the JB Hi-Fi may have dealings. This is because Key Persons may have, or be perceived to have, Inside Information relating to these companies.

Limiting economic risk

- 3.22 No Key Person may enter into any scheme, arrangement or agreement (including options, hedging arrangements other derivative products) under which the relevant Key Person may alter the economic benefit or risk derived by the Key Person, in relation to an unvested equity-based incentive award or grant made by JB Hi-Fi to the Key Person, irrespective of the outcome under that incentive award or grant.
- 3.23 Once any equity-based incentive award or grant made by JB Hi-Fi to a Key Person is vested and is exercisable, the restriction in section 3.22 above does not apply. However, any actions in respect of such awards or grants are subject to the restrictions on Dealing in Securities set out in this Policy. In addition, any Director or Executive taking such action must notify the Company Secretary that this has been done and JB Hi-Fi may publicly disclose this information irrespective of whether it is technically required by law or the ASX Listing Rules.
